The Sub Collector, Hospet, reports that more than 100 applications for granting takkavi loans for the purchase of fodder, are pending now with the Tahsildar, Hospet. He recommends the appointment of Temporary special staff - one special Revenue Inspector and one peon - for the disposal of these applications for a period of three months. There is need for the entertainment of additional staff to attend to this work. Under clauses (1) and (6) of paragraph 10 of the Executive instructions on page 76 of the Madras Loans Manual, I have ordered the employment of one Special Revenue Inspector (lower division) and one peon for a period of one month, or until the number of applications falls below fifty, to work in Hospet taluk, in anticipation of sanction. I request that my action may be approved.
